PENTECOST SUNDAY 2018

Today the Church celebrates the Feast of Pentecost. In the Acts of the Apostles we hear how the Spirit comes to the disciples in the hidden room. The Spirit descends upon them with a rush of wind and tongues of fire. The real miracle of Pentecost is one of listening: God's Spirit overcomes the barriers of language and perception, opening not only the crowds' minds but their hearts to hear the word of God spoken by Peter and Paul. The Spirit enables us today to discern the voice of God in the context of God's compassion and peace, to hear what God actually speaks and not what we want to hear. As on Pentecost, God's Spirit continues to speak in the midst of the busyness, pain and despair of our lives, inviting us to embrace the life and love of God in our hearts and homes.

In the Pentecost moment, the church comes into being. Through the Spirit, God has formed us into a community, an instrument for bringing his life and love into our world. Today we celebrate the presence of God's life-giving breath (ruah) infusing the church with his divinity. The Spirit is still present in today's church to give life to our mission to preach the Gospel to every nation, and to proclaim forgiveness in God's name.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Stewards Give Back

"There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone." –

1CORINTHIANS 12:4-6

All of us are blessed, regardless of our own individual circumstances; God has given each of us many gifts. How we use those gifts in Stewardship is our gift back to God. For God's plan to work, each must do what we are called to do and guess what – we are not all called to do the same thing!
