EASTER 2025

I would like to take this time to thank everyone who helped make the Triduum and Easter liturgies very moving spiritual experiences.

I would like to thank the following:

- Our Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, and Ushers who served on Holy Thursday, Good Friday, the Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday Masses.
- Our musicians and cantors that were present at many of the Masses.
- All those who donated towards the Easter flowers. I especially thank the members of the Art and Environment group who spent many hours decorating for Palm Sunday, Holy Thursday and Easter.
- The Hispanic Community for their presenting the Via Crucis on Good Friday evening.
- I thank Deacon Pedro for his presence and support during the Triduum.

BREAD & WINE FOR MASS

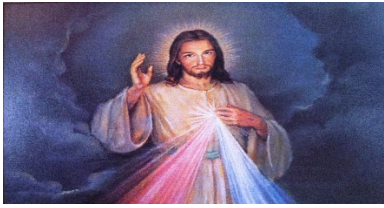

Many thanks to Judy Slater who donated the bread and wine to be used for all of our Masses during the month of April. This gesture of love was made in memory of the Slater Family.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

April 27th

The Universal Church will celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday on April 27, 2025.

St. Pope John Paul II established Divine Mercy Sunday (Second Sunday of Easter) in April, 2000.

It is based on the private revelations of St. Faustina Kowalska, which recommended a particular devotion to the Divine Mercy.

St. Faustina lived in Poland and described an image of Jesus, with rays of blue and red coming from his heart.

At the Canonization ceremony of St. Faustina in April, 2000, St. John Paul II stated “the consoling message of the Divine Mercy is addressed above all to, those who affected by a particular harsh trial or crushed by the weight of the sins they committed have lost confidence in life and are trapped to give in to despair. To them the gentle face of Christ is offered in those rays from his heart that touched them and warm them and fill them with hope. Image how many souls have been consoled by the prayer “Jesus, I trust in you.””

St. Faustina gave the Church these following words to say for the Divine Mercy Chaplet.

“For the sake of his sorrowful passion, have mercy on us and the whole world.”

FIRST COMMUNIONS

Mary, Queen of All Saints Parish has 15 youth receiving the Sacrament of the Eucharist for the first time during May (3rd & 4th and 17th & 18th).

They and their families will be at the 6:30pm Masses on Saturdays and the 10:30am Mass on Sundays.

We welcome these young people at the table of the Lord.

JUBILEE YEAR OF HOPE

CANONIZATION OF

BLESSED CARLOS ACUTIS

April 27th

The Church will celebrate the Jubilee of Teenagers in Rome on April 27th. To mark this Jubilee the Canonization of Carlo Acutis will take place on Sunday, April 27th at 10:30am. (Rome Time)

Carlo Acutis was born near Milan in 1991. He was a computer-coding teenager who died of cancer in 2006. He is known for his great devotion to the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. Shortly after his First Communion, at the age 7, Carlo told his mother “To always be united to Jesus. This is my plan.”

He called the Eucharist “my highway to heaven” and he did all in his power to make the presence known. His witness inspired his own parents to return to practicing the Catholic faith. Over the course of two and a half years, he worked with his parents on an exhibition about Eucharistic Miracles that premiered in 2005.

This presentation has gone on to be presented in diocese throughout the world.

Carlo died at 15 years old and beautified in 2020. Thousands of pilgrims have gone to Assisi to pray at his grave.

The Diocese of Camden has recently renovated the Convent at Camden Catholic High School to hold retreats.

It will be called the St. Carlo Acutis Retreat Center.

SOUTH JERSEY CATHOLIC MINISTRIES

In 2023, the House of Charity – Bishop's Appeal was changed to the South Jersey Catholic Ministries Appeal.

The change was made to better describe the variety of causes and ministries supported by the Annual Appeal and to emphasize the importance of our regional community.

For 2025 our parish's goal is $45,600. As of April 14th, $40,325.50 has been pledged from 53 families!

The Appeal covers:

- Vocations – the education and benefits for our 10 seminarians.
 - Hospital Chaplains – providing chaplains (Priests/Deacons) in the many hospital/medical centers in the six counties of our Diocese.

STEWARDSHIP Stewards Sent

"Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.'"

- (JOHN 20:21)

Peace – the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends his Stewards. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be compassionate and merciful; and not with just those who are our friends, but also with our "enemies." Think of someone in your life who you need to reconcile with. Call them right now or better yet, go visit them.
